

"Revise the City Charter to update provisions governing term limits, vacancies, Common Council procedures, budgeting and financial management, strategic planning, and communications between the Common Council and City employees; establish an Emergency Disaster Relief Services Commission and orientation for newly elected Councilors; and make related organizational and administrative revisions. A vote of "Yes" will approve these revisions in their entirety. A vote of "No" will leave the City Charter unchanged."